We built our funeral home to provide the families in our community the option of dealing with a locally owned, but more importantly family owned and operated business. Please feel free under no obligation, to ask questions and have the confidence you will get straightforward answers.

This means that we are able to offer all types of services which include burial, cremation, chapel services, church services, receptions and family gatherings. We feel the best way for you to celebrate your loved one is to do it your way! We are a full-service funeral home!

We are committed to providing you, the consumer, the very best service possible and to do so at a very fair price. We are even willing to honor another funeral home's price on comparable services. Just bring us the information to compare.

We encourage you to compare more than one funeral home. We believe you will see and feel the difference. If we are given the opportunity to serve your family, we will treat your family like our family.

We accept payment for our services with cash, check, credit card, verifiable insurance assignment to the funeral home and we even accept pre-planned contracts from other funeral homes. Please give us a call if you have any questions, we consider it an honor to serve!

With more than 25 years in the funeral business, we understand what it means to truly serve families at such a difficult time.

The goods and services shown below are those we can provide to our customers. You may choose only the items you desire. However, any funeral arrangements you select will include a charge for our basic services and overhead. If legal or other requirements mean you must buy any items you did not specifically ask for, we will explain the reason in writing on the statement we provide describing the funeral goods and services you selected.

Prices effective February 2, 2022 and are subject to change without notice.

Professional Services

Basic Services of Funeral Director:

$2,000

Our charge for the services of funeral director and staff includes, but is not limited to, staff to respond to initial requests for service arrangement conference, coordination with cemetery, crematory, or any other parties involved with the final disposition of the deceased. Preparing and filing all necessary notices, authorizations and permits. Also, included in this charge are overhead expenses such as professional licensing, accounting fees, insurance, building and utility expenses, secretarial and administrative costs and equipment and inventory expenses. This fee for our basic services and overhead will be included in the total cost of the funeral arrangements you select.

(This fee is already included in our charges for direct cremations, immediate burials and forwarding or receiving remains.)

Embalming:

$700

Except in certain special cases, embalming is not required by law. Embalming may be necessary, however, if you select certain funeral arrangements, such as a funeral with viewing. If you do not want embalming, you usually have the right to choose an arrangement that does not require you to pay for it, such as direct cremation or immediate burial.

Refrigeration: When no embalming beyond the initial day, up to first week (not per day). $400

Other Preparations:

$200

This includes dressing, cosmetology, bathing, washing of hair and normal nail care.

Use of Facilities

These charges are for facilities and staff to serve your needs.

Direct Cremation

Our charge for a direct cremation (without ceremony) includes: basic services of funeral director and staff; a proportionate share of overhead costs; removal of remains; transportation to crematory; necessary authorizations; and cremation if relevant. If you want to arrange a direct cremation, you can use an alternative container. Alternative containers encase the body and can be made of materials like fiberboard or composition materials (with or without an outside covering). The containers we provide are made of fiberboard or an unfinished wood box.

We also assist with obituaries (print and online), scheduling memorial services and interment of cremated remains, filing insurance on your behalf and a final I.D. viewing prior to cremation.

Range from $2,200 to $8,195

By law, an alternative container is not required to be purchased for cremation. We simply offer them in attempt to meet the needs of every consumer. Below is a list of a few options for you to consider.
